ALFONSO'S SPRITZ | Strawberry Sherry Cobbler

A SUBTLE FRUITY SPRITZ PUNCTUATED BY DRY SHERRY AND HERBACEOUS DILL AND ROUNDED OFF WITH FRENCH VERMOUTH.

ALFONSO'S SPRITZ

One day in 1906, the following conversation took place between King Alfonso XIII and his councillor

Alfonso - "I hear the Sherry business is going badly?"

Councillor - "It has been for some considerable time now."

Alfonso - "Do you think that if Sherry were to be made more fashionable in England, it would remedy the situation?"

Councillor- "Yes sir."

Alfonso - "Well, I shall take advantage of my next trip to do what I can for the wine of Jerez. I shall ensure that His Majesty Edward VII takes an interest in it, and that it appears daily on his table. That should do it, you'll see."
